Dear Mr. Morel,

On Wednesday, August 22, 2018 Richard H. Apat, Esq. sent you a letter by electronic mail and regular mail regarding contacting our office on this matter, see copy attached. I contacted your office by telephone, (424) 362-8960, yesterday morning and left a voice-mail message asking that you contact us. Today at approximately 3:30 p.m. I again called your office and the only option was to leave another voice-mail message.

Can you please contact us at your earliest convenience. We have been consulted with regard to the above referenced matter which you commenced and in which you are seeking a default judgment. We want to see if we can get an extension of time to serve an answer and to avoid a default judgment motion.

Thank you for your anticipated cooperation.

Very truly yours,

Martin M. Howfield

Dear Mr. Morel,

I contacted your office yesterday, but it was after hours. I called again today however I could not get you on the phone, but I did leave two voice messages. Can you please contact me at your earliest convenience. I was consulted yesterday with regard to the above referenced matter which you commenced and are seeking a default judgment on.

I want to see if we can get an extension of time to serve an answer and to avoid a default judgment motion.

Thank you for your anticipated cooperation.

Very truly yours,
